Just about every May I sit down to write Homeward Bound; I write about Mom's Day. And why not... it is a very special day for very special people.

My Mom used to tell me, seemingly repeatedly, to do this and do that, not to do this and not to do that. ALL, I recall, very valuable advice. Looking back on it all these many years later, I can say she was, and still is, a very wise woman.

Time reveals, in fact, just about every caring Mother is a Wise Woman. I can see why we carve out a special day each year to acknowledge Moms. So here is a shout out to all Mom's – Happy Mother's Day!!

Unfortunately, Mom is no longer here. I am sure some reading this can relate and have similar stories. For ALL those whose Mom is no longer with us, may you remember the best about them. In addition to that, there are also many who never knew their Mom due to unfortunate circumstance. I bet someone played that roll in their life and they too deserve a Happy Mother's Day!

Regardless, we can celebrate this Mother's Day knowing Moms both here and no longer here are special in more ways than we can count.

Especially the Moms who are sitting right now by their Child's hospital bed not too far from where I type this...

You may recall my team and I are on a mission to raise $50,000 for Children's Hospital of Orange County (CHOC) in 2021. We do that by donating a portion of our income from home sales to this very worthy cause.

Right now, there are kids at CHOC who are trying to beat the Cancer Monster and other nasty debilitating diseases. Children's is one of the best non-profit hospitals at treating kids, even leading the way in early diagnosis of autism and recovery of spinal cord injury. The Mom's with kids being treated at Children's are most likely NOT thinking about their special day this month. They are simply just being "Mom" doing what a real loving Mom does. God bless them for it.

Why I Support Children's Hospital of Orange County:

I remember when I first heard about a young person close to a friend of mine suffering from a nasty disease and getting treated at Children's Hospital of Orange County. It was then that I began to pay closer attention to the work they do at that hospital. Since then, I have learned that it is a collection of hard-working health care professionals, most making their home right here in the Orange County area, all coming together for a common cause. That cause is to help young people overcome unfortunate health issues that life sometimes throws our way.

We take pride in supporting the good work these people do at Children's. My team rallies around our annual goal of raising money and donating portions of our income to help Children's in their quest to heal young people when they need healing. My team and I are committed to providing outstanding results for buyers and sellers referred to us by our past clients. I have discovered that the Children's Hospital of Orange County shares similar commitments to their patients. And since their services survive on sponsorships and donations we are happy to contribute and proud to support them.

I encourage you to visit their website at www.CHOC.org and check out how they are making a difference in the lives of children and their families!
